No. 3: By Gaining the Mind of Christ, We Know More About Jehovah—Matt. 11:27 (5 min.)

❑ Service Meeting:

Song 107

15 min: The Theocratic Ministry School for 2013. Talk by the school overseer. Using the Theocratic Ministry School instructions for 2013, discuss points needing emphasis locally. Encourage all to be diligent in fulfilling their assignments, in participating in Bible highlights, and in applying the suggestions given weekly from the Ministry School book.

15 min: “Be Peaceable With All Men.” Questions and answers. Have a brief two-part demonstration showing first the improper and then the proper way to respond to an irate householder.

Song 39 and Prayer

² Have Insight: Although some react angrily because they oppose the truth, others may display irritation for reasons unrelated to our message. Perhaps we called at an inopportune time. The householder may be upset over personal problems. Even if it is the good news that has made him angry, we should remember that his response is likely because he has been misled. (2 Cor. 4:4) Having insight will help us to remain calm and not take his reaction personally.—Prov. 19:11.

³ Demonstrate Respect: Many in the territory have strongly held beliefs. (2 Cor. 10:4) They have a right to choose whether they will listen or not. Never would we want to belittle a householder’s beliefs or convey an attitude of superiority. If we are asked to leave, we should respectfully comply.

⁴ Speak Graciously: Even if we are verbally abused, our reply should be mild and gracious. (Col. 4:6; 1 Pet. 2:23) Rather than being drawn into an argument, try to find common ground. Perhaps we can kindly inquire about the reasons for the householder’s objection. In order to avoid antagonizing him further, however, at times it is best not to try to continue the conversation.—Prov. 9:7; 17:14.

⁵ If we are peaceable, the householder may well remember our reaction and listen the next time someone tries to give him a witness. (Rom. 12:20, 21) Even if he seems firm in his opposition, one day he may become our brother. (Gal. 1:13, 14) Regardless of whether he ever takes an interest in the truth, we will honor Jehovah and adorn our teaching if we maintain our self-control and demonstrate peaceableness.—2 Cor. 6:3.

2. Why is it important for us to have insight?
3. How may we demonstrate respect for the householder?
4. What does it mean to speak graciously?
5. What benefits come from being peaceable in the ministry?

“Be Peaceable With All Men”

¹ Jehovah’s people are peace-loving, and our ministry is one of peace. (Isa. 52:7) At times, though, we encounter people who are upset because we have called at their door. What will help us to be peaceable in such situations?—Rom. 12:18.

1. What Bible counsel should we apply when encountering householders who are upset?

Invite audience to comment on how they have used jw.org in the ministry.

Song 101 and Prayer

“Ideas for Offering the Magazines in . . .”

We customarily have a monthly Service Meeting part about offering the magazines. Its purpose is not to review the contents of the magazines. Rather, this part is designed to discuss ideas for offering the magazines. Therefore, according to the instructions, the assigned brother gives a very brief introduction to stimulate enthusiasm for the magazines. Then, he obtains publishers’ suggestions on one article (or series) at a time so that all can follow along and take note of ideas they want to use. Rather than inviting the audience to give an entire presentation, he requests several comments on an interest-arousing question to ask and then asks for some comments on a scripture to read. He concludes by having demonstrations for each magazine. We are encouraged to review the magazines in advance and to be ready to give our suggestions. If all prepare well, this part will help us to sharpen the face of one another.—Prov. 27:17.

Our Official Web Site—Designed to Benefit Us and Others

Jesus commissioned us to preach the good news of the Kingdom “in all the inhabited earth for a witness to all the nations.” (Matt. 24:14) In order to help us ‘fully accomplish our ministry,’ watchtower.org, jw-media.org, and jw.org have been combined into the redesigned jw.org Web site.—2 Tim. 4:5.

“All the Inhabited Earth”: About one third of the earth’s population uses the Internet. It has become the primary source of information for many, especially young people. Our site gives Internet users truthful answers to Bible questions. It introduces them to Jehovah’s organization and makes it easy for them to request a free home Bible study. It enables the good news to penetrate areas of the earth where people have few opportunities to hear the Kingdom message.

“All the Nations”: In order to give a witness to “all the nations,” we must present Bible truth in different languages. Visitors to jw.org can easily find information in about 400 languages, more than any other Web site.

Make Good Use of It: The redesigned jw.org Web site is not just for the purpose of witnessing to unbelievers. It has been designed for use by Jehovah’s Witnesses too. If you have access to the Internet, we encourage you to get acquainted with jw.org. The following are some suggestions on how to use it.

Try It

- 1 Enter www.jw.org in the address field of the Internet browser of your computer.
- 2 Explore the site by clicking the section headings, menu options, and links.
- 3 Try using jw.org on your Internet-enabled mobile device. The page layout adjusts to fit the smaller screen, but the information is the same.

Our Official Web Site—Use It for Personal and Family Study

Read the Latest Magazine Online: Read The Watchtower and Awake! online several weeks before receiving the printed copies in the congregation. Listen to audio recordings of a magazine.—Go to “Publications/Magazines.”

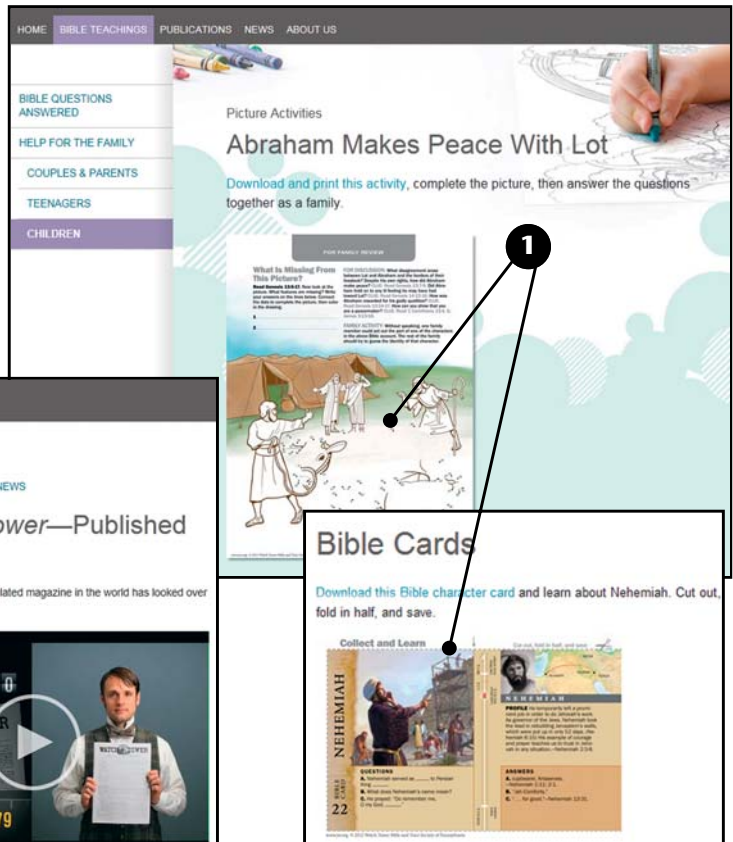

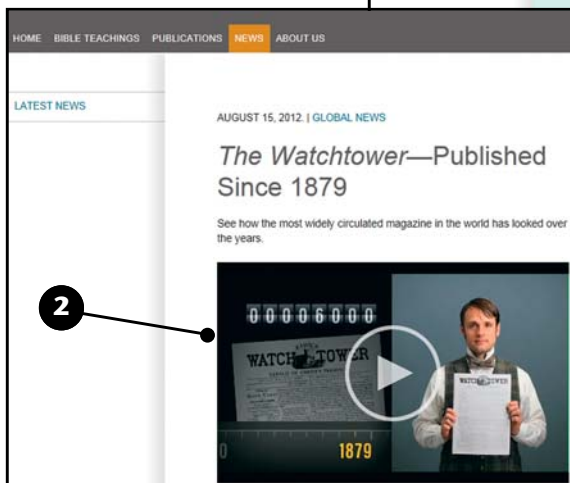

Read Material That Appears Only on the Web Site: Some material, such as “For Young People,” “My Bible Lessons,” “For Family Review,” and “Young People Ask,” now appears only on our Web site. Go online and consider some of this material during your personal and family study.—Go to “Bible Teachings/Children” or “Bible Teachings/Teenagers.”

Get the Latest News: Read encouraging reports and experiences, and watch video clips that highlight the progress of our work around the world. Reports on disasters and persecution can help us to be specific in our prayers for the affected brothers. (Jas. 5:16)—Go to “News.”

Do Research Using Online Library: If this feature is available in your language, use a computer or a mobile device to read the daily text online or to do research in some of our recent publications.—Go to “Publications/Online Library,” or type www.wol.jw.org in the address field of your browser.

Try It

- 1 Click on the picture or the “Download” link. The picture displays in a PDF document window. Print it and use the printout as an activity for your child.

Our Official Web Site —Use It in Your Ministry

Direct People to the Web Site: Some who hesitate to converse with us or accept literature are willing to investigate Jehovah’s Witnesses by looking at jw.org in the privacy of their home. So publicize the Web site at every appropriate opportunity.

Answer Questions: At times a household-er, an interested person, or an acquaintance will ask a question about Jehovah’s Witnesses or our beliefs. Show him the answer on the spot, using a mobile device or a computer. It is often best to read the cited scriptures directly from the Bible. If you do not have ready access to the Internet, explain how the person can use jw.org to find the answer himself.—Go to

“Bible Teachings/Bible Questions Answered” or “About Us/Frequently Asked Questions.”

Send an Article or a Publication to Someone You Know: Attach a downloaded PDF or an EPUB to an e-mail. Or download an audio version of a publication onto a CD. Each time you give someone who is not baptized a complete electronic book, brochure, or magazine, you may count it as a placement. Material should not be sent anonymously or in bulk. Neither should it be uploaded to any other Internet Web site.—Go to “Publications.”

Show the Latest News About Jehovah’s Witnesses: This will help Bible students and others you are calling on to develop appreciation for the worldwide scope of our work and our Christian unity. (Ps. 133:1)—Go to “News.”

Try It

- 1 Under “Publications,” find the item you wish to download, and click the button for the text or audio format you want.
- 2 Click the MP3 button to display a list of individual articles. Click the article title to download it or to listen to it online.

Another callout box labeled '2' points to the 'MP3' button on the 'Awake!' magazine page for June 2012. A third callout box labeled '1' points to the 'Publications' tab in the website's navigation bar. Let Him Listen to an Article: Find an article for which there is an audio track in the person’s language, and play it for him. If you are learning another language, improve your skill by listening to an audio track in that language as you read.—Go to “Publications/Books and Brochures” or “Publications/Magazines.”

Witness to the Deaf: If you find a deaf person, play a sign-language video of a chapter from the Bible, a book, a brochure, or a tract.—Go to “Publications/Sign Language.”

Theocratic Ministry School Review

The following questions will be considered at the Theocratic Ministry School during the week beginning December 31, 2012. The date when each point is scheduled for discussion is included so that research can be done when preparing for the school each week.

1. How has the prophecy recorded at Joel 2:1-10, 28 about the invasion by insects been fulfilled? [Nov. 5, w07 10/1 p. 13 par. 1]
2. In whom does Amos 8:11 find fulfillment, and what question should we ask ourselves, since we are living amid spiritual plenty? [Nov. 12, jd pp. 60-61 par. 9]
3. What may have contributed to the Edomites' being presumptuous of heart, and what reality must we never forget? (Obad. 3, 4) [Nov. 19, w07 11/1 p. 14 par. 1]

4. In what way did Jehovah show regret over the calamity that he had spoken of causing to the inhabitants of Nineveh? (Jonah 3:8, 10) [Nov. 19, w07 11/1 p. 15 par. 1]
5. How can walking in God's name strengthen our friendship with him? (Mic. 4:5) [Nov. 26, jd p. 88 par. 12]
6. What assurance does the fulfillment of the prophecy recorded at Nahum 2:6-10 give us? [Dec. 3, w07 11/15 p. 9 par. 2; w88 2/15 p. 28 par. 7]
7. What is the meaning of Haggai 1:6, and what lesson should we take to heart? [Dec. 10, w06 4/15 p. 22 pars. 12-15]
8. How can we apply the practical advice recorded at Zechariah 7:10 that we “scheme out nothing bad against one another” in our hearts? [Dec. 17, jd p. 113 par. 6; w07 12/1 p. 11 par. 3]
9. Why are the words of Zechariah 4:6, 7 comforting to worshippers of Jehovah today? [Dec. 17, w07 12/1 p. 11 par. 1]
10. In view of what is stated at Malachi 3:16, why should we never weaken in our determination to maintain our integrity to God? [Dec. 31, w07 12/15 p. 29 par. 3]

New Series to Appear in The Watchtower

On the first Saturday of each month, we have been using articles from the Watchtower series “Learn From God's Word” to start Bible studies. Starting in January, this series is being replaced by “Bible Questions Answered,” which will appear on the back page of the public edition. We can use “Bible Questions Answered” in the ministry in much the same way that we used “Learn From God's Word.” (km 12/10 p. 2) As in the past, Our Kingdom Ministry will contain a sample presentation that we can use on the first Saturday of the month.

10 min: A Clean Kingdom Hall Honors Jehovah. Talk by an elder. Jehovah is a holy God, so physical cleanness should be a priority among his people. (Ex. 30:17-21; 40:30-32) By keeping our place of worship clean and in good repair, we bring Jehovah glory. (1 Pet. 2:12) Relate local or published experiences showing how the appearance of a Kingdom Hall resulted in a witness to the community. Though the programme was in English it was also held in eight other languages, either in whole or in part. There was a new peak of regular pioneers and an increase of 4 per cent in total publishers over the same month last year. In Britain, 132,664 shared in field service, conducting 56,050 home Bible studies.
